

Please reject any request to restrict the ability of XM, Sirius and other satellite service providers to transmit localized content to their subscribers. Protectionist requests such as these hurt consumers and the economy as a whole.